

Ira Pope

You can win the battle over temptation in your life and you can learn to walk with God in the very same way the disciples learned to walk with God, the way Noah and Abraham walked with God, and the way Jesus walked with God while in the earth. Jesus said that you too, born-again Christian believer, can and will do the works that Jesus did and greater works than His, if you so believe in Him.

Knowing the purpose and the background of temptation equips us to more completely and permanently overcome. If it was as easy as “Just don’t do it,” no one today would be suffering due to the consequences of self-indulgence associated with overeating, drugs, and alcohol substance abuse, hyper-sexual deviance, gambling, internet lusts, and all other addictions and snares of the enemy.

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” (Hosea 4:6).

“And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free...If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed” John 8:32, 36 KJV.
